The Study

2006 - 2007

Published in Canada Printed in the USA

A Message from Ms. Falco

The Study Yearbook is a wonderful treasure book, filled with memories of a year gone by. I know you will cherish this edition, which reflects another great year of accomplishment, friendship and growth.

L'année scolaire 2006-2007 a certainement été enrichissante pour nos élèves. Les expériences éducatives quotidiennes ainsi que les contacts avec leurs camarades de classe ou le personnel de l'école continuent à les former pour le futur. C'est avec grand plaisir que j'observe nos élèves et nos enseignants dynamiques et pleins de talent collaborant ensemble pour contester, explorer, travailler ou tout simplement s'amuser.

Over the course of the past year I have had the privilege of meeting many Study alumnae. When speaking about their Study experience, many of them express admiration and gratitude for their former teachers. The caring and thoughtful approach of our teachers, their individual personalities and styles and their pure dedication to their mission as mentors continues to have a huge impact on the daily experience of our students and the positive school culture that is created.

C'est toujours avec des sentiments partagés que je dis au revoir à nos diplômées. Celles de cette année sont assurément créatives, énergiques et talentueuses. Elles sont indépendantes et fortes, deux qualités très importantes pour leur avenir. Je les remercie pour tout ce quelles ont contribué au Study pendant leurs années ici. Toutes les finissantes de 2007 ont été acceptées dans le programme postscolaire de leur choix et je suis convaincue que chacune trouvera et poursuivra sa propre passion et fera une différence dans sa communauté. Il me tarde d'entendre parler de leurs aventures et de les soutenir dans les prochaines étapes.

It has been a very positive and active year at The Study and I appreciate the work of our yearbook committee in capturing the highlights. Many thanks to co-editors, Noor Al Heialy and Priscilla Hirst, committee members Lyla Bussières, Tiffany Madon and Arielle Morgan as well as faculty advisors Ms. Anna Palumbo and Mr. David Pelletier for their diligence, time and teamwork!

Best wishes to the Class of 2007!

Messages from the School Directors

The 2006 - 2007 school year has flown by at an incredible pace! It has been an exciting year, one where we enjoyed our traditional activities such as Founder's Day, the annual Bazaar, our Talent Show and Holiday Lunch and a very spirited Spirit Week. It has also been a year where we hosted new activities, such as our Junior Debating Tournament, established the new Mini-Force, and began our exchange programme with Ruyton Girls School in Australia. Each and every activity, both inside and out of the classroom, provides all of us, students and faculty alike, with the opportunity to learn and grow. How fortunate we are to have had so many opportunities!

To the graduates of 2007, may The Study always hold a special place in your hearts. As you embark on new challenges, remember all the opportunities you encountered while attending The Study. Build on your strengths, embrace new challenges with vigour and lead yourselves into a bright future. I hope that you carry with you the sense of caring and community we all feel here at The Study, and I know that each and every one of you will carve a path into the future that is uniquely your own. Follow your dreams, be happy and make a difference in our world.

Ms. Zannis

"Un pour tous, and all for one"

Cette année, l'école primaire a travaillé et évolué dans un esprit de solidarité et d'entraide, sous le thème: "Un pour tous, and all for one". Nous avons appris à apprécier les bienfaits du travail d'équipe.

Chaque geste positif, petit ou grand, que chacun d'entre nous pose, a un impact sur le bien-être de notre communauté. Chaque personne a le pouvoir d'influencer les gens qui l'entourent de façon positive et constructive. Cela peut se faire par un simple sourire, un bonjour matinal, un mot d'encouragement, ou un geste d'entraide.

The Study est un lieu qui offre une riehesse académique et des possibilités d'apprentissage exceptionelles. C'est là où l'on peut apprendre à exceller, à toujours aller plus loin en mathématiques, en français, en anglais, en sciences, en art, ou en musique. L'expérience du Study va toutefois bien au-delà de cet environnement académique. C'est aussi un lieu où l'on apprend à vivre ensemble, en harmonie.

Our Study family is strong and happy when each one of us is fully and truly engaged in school life. Participating in assemblies, Wellness Wednesdays, school spirit activities and field trips organized by the school is being engaged. When each one of us shows this true engagement and this team spirit, we can make a tremendous difference in our community.

Our Grade 6 graduates are leaving the Elementary School well prepared to pursue their academic studies. But just as importantly, they are leaving with fond memories of the times they have spent together as a class. They will remember the magical moments they lived together in Kindergarten, the great time they spent in Quebec City, at Valcartier, or at l'Auberge du Petit Bonheur. They will also remember how great they felt when they participated in the Spirit Week, the talent show, or the choir, and they will never forget the rewarding feeling of having contributed to the wellbeing of an elderly person, a sick child in the hospital, or a hungry child. These are just some of the good memories I hope our Elementary School graduates are leaving with.

C'est donc en participant et en étant engagées dans la vie scolaire que nos élèves bénéficient pleinement de ce que le Study peut leur offrir. Je les encourage à toujours continuer à poursuivre leur implication de façon positive dans leur milieu de vie afin de devenir des femmes formidables. Car le monde en a besoin!

Mme Bastien-Doss

The Yearbook Team

We are extremely proud of this yearbook. The hours put into it are countless and the dedication, immeasurable. Although the yearbook was a challenging experience, it is one not to forget. We started the year without even knowing how to make a simple design or title. It's hard to think that we've gotten this far! Through the hundreds of reminders, emails, deadlines and crazy amounts of stress, we could not have asked for a better team to work with. Lyla, Arielle, and Tiffany you were all great support and help to us. We know that there were times when we demanded a lot and we appreaciate all your dedication. We know we could not have done it without you!

Percy, you are the best co-editor known to mankind. I appreciate all the work you have done and thank you for supporting me. Though we were always under stress and were sometimes discouraged, we always found something to laugh at in the end. I love you for everything and I won't ever forget this experience we've shared!

Putting this yearbook together would not have been possible without those who showed us an incredible amount of support and willingness to help out. Firstly, Ms. Palumbo and Mr. Pelletier, thank you for your encouragement and for supporting us throughout the entire making of this yearbook, down to the last minute. It was a pleasure working with you as our yearbook team advisors! We would also like to thank Ms. Sutherland, Ms. Liogas and Ms. Pappius for always being glad to help out. Another big thank-you to those whose artistic skills and effort went into the designing process: Ohshennenhà:wi Hill for this year's cover art. Farida Khan for the section dividers, and Patricia Bright for the Events divider. Lastly, we want to recognize our unofficial member of the yearbook team, Dahlia Chalati. Thank you for all the times you have come to our rescue with your expertise. Once again, we can't express how much we appreciate all the help, generosity and guidance we have received from students and members of staff throughout the school year.

Noor, thank you for working with me as a co-editor and equally importantly, as a friend. Thank you for helping me see the humour in so many of the frustrating situations we have encountered during our time as yearbook editors. Looking back, I'm so glad we've managed to have a great time while producing this book. I love you for all the laughs, teamwork, and dedication.

To the graduates of 2007, good luck! We hope you remember us when you look through this yearbook in a couple of years from now. To the rest of the school, enjoy!

It's been a long year for us, but it's been a fun one. I have realized just how much time, effort and creativity goes into making a yearbook. To next year's team: remember that although a lot of your time will be spent on capturing the year's achievements and events, the greatest feeling is knowing you've documented a year's worth of wonderful memories and have completed it to the best of your ability. Be delighted :)

I had a great time working on this year's yearbook. Between taking pictures and designing pages it has been a big learning experience. It would not have been possible without our great editors, supervising teachers and the rest of the yearbook team who have put so much time and effort into making it what it is. Enjoy!

Participating in this year's yearbook has been amazing. Not only did we manage to complete a 120-page book capturing all the school year's memories, we managed to have fun along the way. Whether it was taking pictures, chasing down team captains for their write-ups or formatting creative templates, there was always a new job waiting to be tackled.

The yearbook would not be what it is without the time and devotion our editors, staff, and yearbook team have put into it.

Head Girl
Olivia Blatchford

When I moved to Montreal in August 2000 for Grade 5 and attended The Study for the first time, I realized after the first day of school that the Head Girl was my neighbour! Being a 10-year-old, I was very impressed. The Head Girl has always been such a role model for me. Ever since that day, I told myself that one day, I was going to be Head Girl. What a great opportunity it has been for me to have been Head Girl for the 2006-2007 school year! Ms. Falco, thank you so much for an inspiring trip to Australia. It was an experience of a lifetime. From planning prefect initiations, staying up late finishing up speeches and being an MC for various events, it's been such a good experience. Lara, good luck next year! Your enthusiasm and your perseverence will help you through this amazing year. You're going to do great... just remember never to leave things to the last minute, it will only add on stress that you really don't need for your graduating year. Student Council - You have all been so amazing and I must say... we really do work well together! I'll miss our meetings after school and all the fun we've had together. To the graduating class of 2007, what a great time we've had! Love you all to the moon and back. Peace.

Sub-Head Girl
Emily Coffey

I remember the first time all seven of us sat down together as the 2006-2007 Student Council. I couldn't help thinking how excited I was for the year ahead. It was then that I realized: we're graduating soon. I had no idea how fast that soon would come.

I'll never forget our days in the art room cutting up dance tickets, attaching heart lollipops to heart-o-grams, or brainstorming ideas for an upcoming event. I now know much more about Smilemakers, Dollarama, DJs and Whippets (the cookies and the dogs) than I ever thought I would. Over the course of the year, we went through many memorable transformations - from America's Next Top Models to S Club 7 and Donald Trump's apprentices. You girls all have much more talent than you think. I can't wait to hear where your futures take you.

I am honoured that I was given the chance to be on this year's Student Council. Thank you to Ms. Zannis for guiding us through the tough times. Best of luck to next year's Student Council!

Sports Captain
Samantha Rudolph

My position as Sports Captain this year, although at times demanding, was a fun one because of the amount of spirit Study students have. I'm pretty sure you won't find another school that gets decked out on house day the way we do! Being Sports Captain has been a very honourable position and I'm sure I will miss it next year, but I guess I'll just have to get used to the fact that I won't be making an announcement to my whole school every assembly next year! Thank you to Mrs. Traylen for all your help this year. Ski Day and the Athletics Banquet couldn't have been done without you. Thanks to Ms. Zannis for your guidance and support. Lastly, thank you to the Student Council for the countless laughs and Wednesday lunches. Good luck next year Alex, I'm certain you'll do an amazing job.

Treasurer
Amanda Santache

I can honestly say that being Treasurer for the Student Council has been an experience like no other. Expectations give us an idea of what we hope to accomplish but, for me, this year has been completely unpredictable. Besides counting and sorting never-ending piles of change, I also gained some valuable and unexpected life advice like the fact that the Dollar Store doesn't accept any form of credit card, and that Wal-Mart is just always full. Finally, I'd like to thank Olivia, Emily, Tiff, Vio, Sam and Sarah. Thank you for the memories, and I've never had so much fun making an utter fool of myself. To Laetitia and SC 07: good luck next year, I'm sure you'll be amazing!

Entertainment Prefect
Tiffany Aziz

When I was first awarded this amazing position last year, I knew I had to organize a couple of dances, a talent show, and some other stuff, but I had no idea just what all that entailed. Through the past year as Entertainment Prefect I have learned a lot; responsibility, how to decorate a gym, to get music for the talent show prior to the day of, how to make song request lists for DJs and much, much, more. Being on Student Council really allowed me to get closer to the other 6 members. Olivia, Emily, Sam, Amanda, Sarah, and Violaine, you guys are amazing, and this year wouldn't have been such a success without you guys! We all really worked as a team to bring everything together and planning all the complicated events wouldn't have been such an amazing experience without these 6 girls. To the Student Council of next year, good luck, especially to Bianca, I wish you all the best!

Elementary School Prefect
Sarah Lazure

I was especially lucky to spend the year working with 6 incredible girls that had huge amounts of creativity, crazy organizational skills and very good senses of humor. Though there have been some very stressful moments or more like months (next year's Student Council, get ready for February!), I have had such a great time working on this year's Student Council. Ms. Zannis, thank you for your incredible dedication to this school and for all of your support throughout the year. This has been a great experience for me and it has been a pleasure working with all of you. I'll miss coordinating all the fun events, preparing the baked goods for teachers (and sampling for quality control) and interviewing DJs (that was an experience in itself!) I'll miss you all very much next year; you managed to keep me sane, on track during the crazier moments, and laughing through it all. Thanks for the memories.

Secretary
Violaine Saint-Cyr

As nearly any grade 11 girl at The Study would tell you, this year has flown by. Being on the Student Council has been a challenging yet rewarding and fun experience. It wasn't always easy, but having my diverse and energetic SC buddies by my side made it so much more pleasant! Olivia, whose contagious laughter could be heard from miles away; Emily, who was always hard at work with planning our skit scripts; Tiff, who let me add some Latino music to her play lists for the dances; Sarah, whose cheeriness could always boost our moods; Amanda, who got excited about her Excel spreadsheet calculations, and last but not least; Sam, whose adorable humour and smile were always appreciated. I learned several important lessons, some which I never thought I would have to deal with (Dollarama ONLY accepts cash, even when you are buying them out of every single animal-shaped chalkboard they have; blow-up palm trees are rather hard to find in Montreal; and that being a member of the Student Council also implies being a part-time model). Thank you to my class for giving me this leadership opportunity, and best of luck to all future Student Council secretaries!

Put some balance in your life.

Committees

Shennel Hunte, Marta Cybulsky and Caroline Smisek

Bazaar Committee

When you think of our school's annual Bazaar, you think of TCBY, the haunted house, and all the little ones running around with paint on their faces. We always remember how great the Study Bazaar was, giving to charities, and having fun at the same time. In Elementary School, it seemed as if the books, stuffed toys, and all the good food would magically appear in the school and that the Haunted House, Tea Room and Fish Pond would all be decorated overnight. But this year, the three of us realized that organizing this big event was no small task. Working alongside Ms. Zannis, organizing the booths, preparing the various activities and running the actual bazaar was definitely a worthwhile experience. We were very pleased to have donated the money we raised to the charity Doctor Clown, and are glad that the event was such a great success. Finally, we would like to thank all the staff, students and parents for participating!"

Farida Khan

Art Head

"It has been a great year to be Art Head. I had the privilege of designing all the banners, posters flyers and anything else that was needed around the school. It is a great position for others to follow who have good ideas and designs to bring to the school. There are a lot of events at The Study and Art Head is always very busy making new and different things. I have also helped out with designing pages in the yearbook and other projects. It has been a fun and worthwhile experience!"
- Farida

Kaitlyn Gosman, Courtney Schlemm, Carly Munro, Jessica Melkerson (Head) and Rebecca Hooton

Grad Committee

"Being chosen by the grade 11 to plan the biggest event of our high school life was such an honour. As stressful as it was, and as much work as it was, it was an amazing opportunity. This would not have been possible without all our host families and especially the rest of the committee; Courtney Schlemm, Carly Munro, Kaitlyn Gosman, and Rebecca Hooton. Without them this would not have been possible. I'd also like to thank Mme Anderson for all her support and guidance. She kept me on track every step of the way. Congratulations Class of 2007. It's not the end, it's only the beginning."
- Jessica

Alexa Jodoin

Tuck Head

"Had it not been for the hungry student body, tuck would not have had as successful a year as we did. Raising money for grad while practising the concept of supply and demand helped us get a feeling for how a very simple business might run. I would like to thank, first and foremost, Mme. Anderson for her perseverance and determination to keep me in line and on task. I would also like to thank my mother and all the grade 11 students who supplied us with baked goods and all of you who helped me sell at some point or other, your contributions were greatly appreciated. And last but most definitely not least, I would like to thank the student body grades 7 through to 11 for being so hungry."
- Alexa

Committees

Amanda Santache
Committee head to core group of 7 girls as well as committee members throughout the senior school

Free The Children

"Leading Free The Children at The Study has been invaluable to me. Not only have I had the opportunity to make a change in the world, but it has allowed me to experience firsthand the most redeeming qualities of a Study girl: generosity and compassion. I hope I have been able to continue what Sophine brought to the school years ago and wish next year's committee all the best of luck. I would like to thank everyone in the group for their continuous support and ideas, as well as Ms.Zannis for making everything possible. Finally, to Mme Begin: your support was invaluable to me and I could not have done it without you."
- Amanda

Noor Al Heialy (Head), Kieve Pauzé-Huang and Lyla Bussières

GFC

"Girls for the Cure this year was a great success. We raised the most money we ever have thanks to you girls! Being Girls for the Cure head was a great privilege for me and I honestly don't think I could have asked for better partners to help me through the work. Lyla and Kieve, you girls were the best! Thanks for all your hard work. Ms. Zannis, thanks again for all the time you dedicated. The Study always does so well in raising money and being spirited and I'm confident that next year will be the same."
-Noor

Priscilla Hirst and Lyla Bussières

Alumnae Prefects

"One of the first things we were told after being elected Alumnae Prefects was that this was not only a position that we would hold throughout grade 11, but one that would last a lifetime. Now that the school year is over, we are looking forward to making sure that we all keep in touch as a grade and as a group of friends, bonded by the years we spent growing up together at The Study. We know how important it is to keep this bond intact and we look forward to assuring this in the future. A big thank-you goes to Ms. Sutherland for working with us all year and for making it such an enjoyable experience! To the graduating class of 2007: Welcome to the Study Old Girls' Association and to being an official school alumna!"
- Priscilla and Lyla

Rowan Bovaird and Courtney Schlemm

Community Service Reps

"Community service is a fantastic, gratifying experience. We feel so lucky to be in this position where we can link the students of The Study with society in a way that both groups can benefit. We really hope that everyone has had the opportunity to find a project they enjoy doing that they can continue in the future. Good luck to next year's representatives!"

Beta Lambda

Spirited. Energetic. Enthusiastic. The best house in the world and many others are the words that describe BETA LAMBDA!! This was such an unforgettable year and it would never have been possible if it were not for all you amazing betalambdians. Winning so many challenges and collecting all those excellences and cheering so loud that we blew the walls of our cafeteria. We could not have asked for more and we know that you will continue the tradition of being the best house ever! We are so proud of you and we know that next year will be just as good as this year and even better because BETA LAMBDA will always be in good hands no matter what!
LOVE ALWAYS.
Katelyn Good- Head
Rowan Bovaird and Stephanie Regimbal- Sub-Heads
Ally Fraquelli- Sports Captain

Delta Beta

So I think it's pretty safe to say that Delta Beta is probably the greatest house in the world. No lies - from our bright yellow to our crazy spirit, we rock this school. This year on the force has been full of excitement and we hope that next year is going to be just as wild. Delta Beta let me hear you roar. Peace, love, and let's keep bringing home the gold!

Liv Caldareri - Head
Anna Kruyt and Iona Galbraith- Sub-Heads
Caroline Jo - Sports Captain

Mu Gamma

Claiming the position of Mu Gamma Head for an entire year was honestly a big honour for me.
When I tried out in grade 10, there was no way I'd imagined I'd actually get it. As a person who has never won anything or was ever a leader, earning this position was a challenge but still so much fun. It tested my patience and my ability to make every house meeting a memorable one; it allowed my imagination to literally run free. With the combination of mooing and dancing, I like to believe my fellow Mu Gammians had a fun year with me, because I most definitely had a blast with all of them. Thank you to Carly Munro and Leila Ghaemi for always helping me out and who were always full of ideas. And to everyone else in Mu Gamma hopefully you didn't find my leaderdhip too insane and that you'll remember this year as a fun one slash slightly ridiculous.
Ali Gadler- Head
Carly Munro- Sub-Head
Lila Ghaemi- Sports Captain

Kappa Rho

Well Kappa Rho, it's been good. Spirit cup AND the Inter House Sports Cup. We totally racked it in, wouldn't you say? As your house officials this past year, we would like to thank each and every one of you for being so spirited and energetic! You were fantastic! Working on the Force has given the three of us such a wonderful sense of what it is to be a leader and to utilize all our imagination and organization capabilities. To top it all off, we got the most spirited and amazing group of girls to work with! To all the future and present Kappa Rhoians - be proud of who you are; warriors, cheerleaders, and above all...KAPPA RHOIANS!
It was great to have been part of your team.
Your house officials,
Mia Kuzmicki- Head
Stephanie Brownstein- Sub-Head
Lara De Stefano- Sports Captain

Noor Al Heialy

It seems that ever since I have entered this school, I've been keeping track of how many years I had left before I would finish. I can't believe that I've been here for a whole decade! It's gone by so fast that I seem to have trouble remembering some of the years. My years at The Study have been indescribable, through good times and bad, I managed to make it through with help from my family, teachers and friends. V.S.C., K.G., S.B., S.R., F.K.,P.H.,Jude, Yasmine, Sab; you girls have made even the roughest times, the best times. The countdown has finally come to an end and although I am sad to leave so much behind, I am ready to go.
"You never really leave a place or person you love, part of them you take with you, leaving a part of yourself behind."

Tiffany Aziz

It's hard to believe that my long, 10-year journey at The Study has finally come to an end! I have learned so much at The Study, more than can be taught in books. I have changed so much over the last 10 years, and the girls in my grade have been there every step of the way. Mom, Dad, Amanda, and Michael: thanks for being there through all my ups and downs. OB, you are amazing and will always be a sister to me. JM, AS: JAT, you guys keep me sane! AK, couldn't have made it through ITM without you! OC, you always put a smile on my face! Maude, Em, Kristin: you complete me! Our journey at The Study has come to an end. Congratulations, Class of 2007!!

"Sometimes the hardest thing and the right thing are the same" -The Fray

Olivia Blatchford

Lovers! I can't believe it's over. Seven years feels so long but at the same time, so short. Blatchford family... you are all the support behind everything I do. Thanks so, so, so much! T.A, A.K, O.C, C.S, S.R, K.G, R.B, F.K- I love you girlies! You have all been there for me throughout these last 7 years and we are the craziest group of girls I know. Let's have a movie night and eat sushi... I love our randomness and our ability to have fun in any situation. Charles, you're amazing! I can't wait to be back on Canoe Lake and I'll miss you next year. Ballas - you are the loves of my life... let's go pitch a tent, eat tiger balls, have a dance party, listen to some Mitch Hedberg and I don't know... maybe Carm and Rick will make an appearance.
"This is the start of something really big. But right now... I gotta go." - Garden State

Rowan Bovaird

Leaving the place I have eight years' worth of memories from is a scary feeling. Who would have guessed that my best memories would include sitting on a dirty couch with a group of girls with whom I share not only an education, but also a friendship. From rebellions and couple walls, to class trips and late nights, we will all share amazing memories of our times at the Study together.
KG-SR-OB-FK-SB-AS-AJ-ML-KS-MK: you made the last few years more than amazing.
Liv+Anna+Court+Stef R- No one makes me enjoy life quite like you; you make me so happy, I love you all so much.
Lindsay- I'm so lucky to be related to my best friend. I'm so proud of everything you do.
Mom+Dad- Thank you for loving me even when I'm unbearable.

"Life moves pretty fast. If you don't stop to look once in awhile, you could miss it".
- Ferris Bueller

Patricia Bright

They say that when you go on a trip, it doesn't matter where you go or how you get there, it's the people and the memories you take with you that make it worthwhile. I've spent 12 years on one of the longest trips I'll ever take in my life and along the way, I've found 36 friends, 36 sisters and 36 different smiles that I'll remember forever. Lexi, Ali, Svet you are truly my sisters, my soul mates and you've contributed so much to my life and my perspective on it. You've been there through thick and thin, you've seen the best, the worst and everything in between. To my Graduating Class: thank you for being with me on this 12-year journey; for all the hugs, the laughter and memories. Thank you for helping me develop into the person I am proud to be. Good Luck to you and all your endeavors, WE'RE OUTTA HERE.

Stephanie Brownstein

My two years at The Study have been a great experience! My teachers have been very supportive in helping me adjust to a new environment and I appreciate all of their efforts. Who says that a girls' school can be hard to break into socially? Thank you all for accepting me in your community and allowing me to experience new and true friendships within such a short period of time. To all of my friends: I am so happy that we have become close and have built so many unforgettable memories. To Andrea, or Bite-Size Brownie: enjoy your time at this school because even though it seems hard to believe now, it will be over before you know it. Our grade's strengths are confidence, excellence, and acceptance. These qualities will guarantee our success in the future. May life bring you happiness, health, and good luck. Keep in touch.
-Brownie.

Lyla Bussières

In kindergarten, I never thought I'd be a lifer, but then again I didn't really know what it meant and I never thought I'd have so much to say 12 years later either. Inside the walls of the little house on the hill, I have learned so many things, and not just inside the classroom. I have no regrets in life and believe that everything happens for a reason. At The Study, I have made awesome friends and have also lost some. Thank you Priscilla, Marta and Hannah, for all of our memories and inside jokes that keep me laughing; to the teachers that have made a difference; and to my loving, supportive family that has been there for me from the beginning. With only a few months left, I'm excited to begin new adventures; yet sad to leave the place where I have spent so much of my life and where I have so many memories. At the end of the year, we'll all be going our separate ways, so to my fellow graduates and friends: don't cry because it's over, smile because it happened.

Olivia Caldareri

"What a long, strange trip it's been" (Grateful Dead). I can't think of any better way to describe my 5 years at The Study. It's funny how everything we know - our entire world - will soon just be a distant memory. Mom, Dad, Chris and James, thanks for putting up with me, I love you.
Anna, Olivia, Tiff, Courtney, Rowan, Sam, Kaitlyn, Maryam, Kahile- you girls have been my laughter, my ecstasy, my chaos, my delirium. Everything else is lost from there.

To the Graduating Class of 2007, I wish you peace, love and happiness.

"Expose yourself to your deepest fear; after that, fear has no power, and the fear of freedom shrinks and vanishes. You are free." -Jim Morrison

This is the beginning of a great thing.

Emily Coffey

You girls are my life. For the past twelve years we have been growing up together, through the good times and the bad. The years we have spent at The Study have slipped by faster than I could have imagined. Looking back I have so many good memories to keep from our times together. You have taught me so much. I'll never forget you.

We stand together. We are confident. We wave to strangers. We laugh till we cry. We meet new people. We wish upon stars. We stay up late. We make jokes. We fall down. We cry. We get up. We are strong. We are one. We are the Grads of '07, but this is not the end.

I love you all, oxxo Emily (Moo!)

Hannah Cowen

Six years ago, I got my first tour of the Study and fell in love with its seemingly-clean floors, tiny-yet-beautiful campus, and of course, the prospect of having my very own Mac laptop. Since I started my high school education here, it has been a love-hate relationship. Although I don't take being a Study girl for granted. Many of the teachers I've had over the years, as well as staff, have made my experience at The Study something very positive. I can't say I'm going to miss taking off my boots at the door in winter or the minimal width of my currently shelf-less locker but I have this little feeling that I'm going to get all nostalgic about it all once I'm gone. Secret: Hannah E. Cowen is actually going to miss this place. PrH, MaC, LyB, LiS: you made my last year worth getting up for.

Marta Cybulsky

We only realize how much something meant to us once it's gone. The Study is the definition of three quarters of my life, and my perception of this time period seems distorted. I count down minutes to the end of class, and mistake Tuesdays for Fridays, but twelve years went by quickly. How can I leave so much behind?
And so, I thank my parents for giving me the opportunity to learn, develop, and take advantage of this incredible and terrific environment. To all my friends, Ukes and Studs: thanks for all the experiences we shared. You've made me who I am. To the Class of '07, I think we're all ready for a change. I'll miss the closeness our grade shared. It's rare, but very special, to practically be able to write a biography about each of my classmates. I wish you all luck, success, and most importantly, happiness!

Fanny Dvorkin

I have a confession to make: I always left English essays to the last possible minute. The same goes for grad write-ups. For the first time, I am stumped. It certainly isn't for lack of inspiration- this house on the hill, the kilts and the girls wearing them- has been my inspiration for the past nine years. And I will have a whole new dose of life outside these doors. How can I sum up nine years in 150 words? I won't. 150 isn't enough to say goodbye. I'll wait ten years. Ten years to roam the world. Maybe to Europe, Rome, the Trevi fountain. If you drop a coin in the fountain you are sure to return. This school has filled me with so much more than gold. We will return one day, richer than we are now. Did you know ciao means both hello and goodbye in Italian?

Alicia Gadler

So I graduated...
Saying those words is definitely the weirdest feeling I've felt in a long time. Putting on a white robe and holding a diploma in my hands is definitely surreal. My time here has passed by so quickly since I clearly remember my first day of school where I clutched onto my Youpi doll and had special bathroom privileges. This school has given me far more than an education- it has given me friendships that I believe will last for years. Pancakes, thanks for being there since day one. Iona, you are the definition of my life. Amanda, thank you for hours of lovable obesity and pulling me back to reality when I left. Mela, thank God for the Hospitality Corner because it's what made me and you, and without you, I wouldn't work. Marta, girlfriend, thanks for cheese and crackers, and long live Macdo! Tub tub I love you. Mom, Dad, Ross, Vava, and Olivia, thanks for supporting me. So here we go Grads of 2007, I love you all, honestly I do.

Iona Galbraith

After 5 long years at The Study you would think that I have learned a lot but most of what I have learned has nothing to do with school. I have learned that friends come and go, but your true friends will stay forever. I believe that I have changed so much these past 5 years that I don't think that I would even recognize myself. I'll always remember those crazy lunch hours sitting eating skittles and watching the microwaves catch on fire. All my friends; Carly, Amanda, Patricia and especially Ali, you will always be my best friend. As I look back I realize that The Study isn't just a school, it's somewhere you go everyday to become a different person. So after everything that has happened, I have had a great 5 years and I can't wait to see what will happen next.
IONA

Katelyn Good

Wow, it's already time for grad write-ups. I can remember like it was yesterday walking in those front doors, three short years ago, thinking how much I didn't want to move from Toronto, but now that I look back, I couldn't have wanted anything more. I have made the most amazing friends here, NAH,SB,VSC, FK,_, you all mean so much to me I don't think you even know. To my teachers who have taught me so much, and to my family, who continuously supported and encouraged me through my many challenges and triumphs whether it was with skating or anything else that has happened in my life. And to the Graduating Class of 2007, we have grown and rebelled together and I wish all of you the best luck in the future. You all have made my stay at The Study, even though I missed a lot of school, the best it could have been. Remember to follow your hearts, achieve your dreams and never forget the people who have helped you along the way!
Kate <3*

Kaitlyn Gosman

We've reached the end of the beginning, and I'm more than ready to go. There's no doubt I'm sad it's over, but I leave here with twelve years of memories and relationships that will not be forgotten. Mom & James- thank you so much for your love and support throughout the years. Sam, Court, Fafa, Rowan, Liv, OB, Anna- you are what made the time here more than bearable. You guys made the hard times easier, boring times fun and the good times even better. I love you all & wish you nothing but the best. Adriana- I couldn't have made it through without you around. We've gone through so much together, and there's more to come. Good & bad, you've been there for all of it. For that and much more thanks and I love you! Jason, you mean so much to me (always). Thanks & Goodbye to all.

Ohshennenhà:wi Hill

Hey all. I'll try to make this short, starting with: WE'VE GRADUATED! We've finally made it through high school and out that front door into CEGEP. Here's me wishing everyone an awesome summer and a fabulous lifetime! But hey, hey, hey, don't any of you think I'm out of your hair yet. :P Some of you are stuck with me at Dawson. Whee! Fanny, I hope to see you and your pink helmet over the summer so don't go anywhere! Regi, that promise I made is still on the table! Shennel, don't lose any of that oh-so-lovable insanity while I'm gone. And to everyone else whose names will run off this page and get cut off, I'll be seeing you all at our reunions so don't anyone dare miss 'em or I'll knock on your door and glare at you. Rawr. Alrighty, this is Ohshennenhà:wi signing off. Laterz, d00dz.

Priscilla Hirst

As hard as it is for me to believe, my twelve years at The Study are over. Grade 11 is an exciting time and when the school year finally comes to an end, it feels almost unbelievable.To the class of '07: Thanks for growing up with me. I'll never forget you.
I want to thank my teachers for being a huge part of what The Study is, and the friends I have made while I have been here. Marta, Lyla, Hannah, Dahlia, Alicia and Noor, thanks for being around through the ups, the downs, and everything in between. As this chapter of my life comes to an end, I look back with much appreciation for the experiences and memories that have made up my time at The Study.

Congratulations to the Class of 2007 and a bittersweet goodbye to you all. Take care!
Priscilla

Rebecca Hooton

The past six years have been filled with some of the most entertaining, heartwarming, and amazing times of my life so far. All 36 Stud Grads have made me who I am today. Without you, I don't know where I'd be. Carly; you are my rock, Jess; never a dull moment, Sarah; my many named friend, you are tytastic (enough said). You girls mean so much to me and I love you all more than words can say. Mom, Dad, Graham and Trevor: thank you for everything you do and everything you are. To all the members of our graduating class: no matter what happens, know that you are amazing and we'll always have each other. I don't know what else to say other than I love you, thank you, good bye, and good luck!

Shennel Hunte

Eating boxes of cookies in class, Photo Booth, and daily dance parties in the locker room pretty much IS grade 11 this year. I never thought I'd miss The Stud Hut as much as I will now. I've always wanted to move on, to start something new. But this year, I changed my mind. We grew up, matured. CM: thank you for being my shoulder, for all the advice, and sometimes just for the silence. EC: thanks for the Goldfish, and the jokes. MK, KPH, JM, SL, RH, KS: you guys complete me. Love you all. To the 2 stooges: will always remember the good times. To my parents: thank you for everything. I Love You.
36 girls, 36 reasons to want to stay here forever. Finally, to my class, the greatest, strongest and most opinionated girls I know: "Do not follow where the path may lead. Go where there is no path and leave a trail." -(Ralph Waldo Emerson)

Alexa Jodoin

I first came to The Study in grade seven. Within these five years, I have cried, I have laughed, I have panicked, I have gotten lost and I have found my way. High School is known to be one of the most difficult periods in one's life, and I honestly don't think that I could have survived without my friends cheering me on every step of the way. I am leaving this school with more that just friends, but with sisters. Sisters who I can rely on to make me smile when I am having a bad day, and to cheer me up when I am upset. My experience here has taught me that life is unpredictable and you need your friends to help you deal with the hard times. I will never find 36 girls as kind and understanding as the ones I am graduating with. So here is to all of my sisters, I love you!

Farida Khan

I could write about all my friends and people at The Study, but instead I decided for them to write what they would say when asked: You know you're Fafa when you...

- take a year to say your nationality
- can define lyrics with dance moves, even opera
- have pasta every day for lunch and when you don't the whole table notices
- need new running shoes
- have a million nick names
- are the most gorgeous girl, yet you can make the UGLIEST faces.
- your chain hangs low
- make it rain
- can make your friends famous on photoshop
- hiphop on people
- freestyle rap battle, only on facebook
-are a purple kitty
- are my fuski forever. And ever. And ever.

Regina Kiu

The Study has made up 11 years of my life -11 years in exchange for 150 words. Thanks to my parents, teachers, and friends, my adventure was made possible. This school as a whole has provided me just about everything I needed, (well, except for boys). Stepping out of The Study School's door, as a graduate, still feels so surreal. Looking back, it is almost impossible to believe how I am still able to maintain my reputation for never having worn a dress after spending countless hours around a houseful of girls. Nonetheless, I have been influenced in many other areas. To the Grads of '07: thanks for giving me times of laughter and tears. Thanks for showing me what it is to stand up for one another. You guys are my life. I wish you girls good luck in the future and see you in 10 years!

Adrianna Kruyt

There's no denying it: living in such close corridors, surrounded by familiar faces over 7 years, truly made an impact on my life. Such a big part of me is at The Study now and it's almost surreal to think that in a few weeks all these seemingly important details will give way and only happy memories will remain. First off, I need to thank my parents for continuously giving me support and encouragement, I love you. To my sisters: all three of you are amazing and I've learned so much from each one (even you Alexa). Jacqueline, Lloyd, thank you for constantly making me laugh. Liv, you're like the core, totally stripped down to what's real, I adore us. Olivia, Court, Rowan, Sam, Tiff, Kaitlyn, you guys made these years fly by that I never saw the end coming, we've had the best of times together, and I'll miss you all. Finally to the Class of '07: this is the dawning of the rest of our lives, I wish you peace, love and happiness.

Mia Kuzmicki

So many times I have read past grad write-ups of young women commenting on how quickly time has passed them by. In my case, I would like to say it's about time. As I look around at the girls I grew up with, I can't help but smile. Kaja and Kieve, no crying it's not over yet. Fafa, I will forever be a Fafist (ban me to hell if I betray your holiness). Kate, you're everything I wish I could see in myself. Rowboat, WACEO RAM shnoocums. Sexi Lexi, you're hardcore. Carly, all those remember-whens. Tom, my high school sweetheart, Jtm. Justin, you're so ambitious, you will be great. Mom, Dad; when your bird flees the nest, she will come back and visit the ones who cared for her so dearly. Matcho, you're my freedom. "His is a power enhanced by pride, a courage heightened by challenge" - (anonymous).

Sarah Lazure

My high school days are coming to a close and it's hard to imagine not going to a school where everyone knows your name and where you're so comfortable it's practically a second home. I have had some of the best times of my life these past 6 years at The Study and can't imagine life without the Little House on the Hill and the people in it. I would like to thank the amazing teachers for truly caring. I've learned a lot. I would never have been able to have so much fun without the love, support and comedic geniuses of R.H., J.M., C.M., A.S., T.A., E.M., E.W. and M.E. You guys are the best of the best, thanks for all the good times. Finally, thanks to Mum, Dad, Eric and Charles for making me laugh and always encouraging me. It's not really goodbye, it's see you soon.

Jessica Melkerson

My 3 years at The Study have felt like a lifetime. It's hard to believe that it's all coming to an end. The friends I have met here are for life. Through all the good and bad times, we were always there for each other and always will be. Always and Forever. Amanda and Sam: you guys are my sisters. Carly, you are always there for me, even when I don't deserve it. Sarah, you are my party buddy. Becca, you are my creative little housemate. Brownie, you always have a logical answer and Tiff you are my music-loving emo. Now, I'd like to say thank you to my family for always being there for me, supporting my decisions and letting me grow up my own way. Also thank you to Jack and Paige for being two of my best friends, I don't know what I would do without you.
Class of 2007, Congratulations - our day has come, I love you all. Remember, this isn't the end, it's only the beginning.
-"smile like you're always happy. laugh like everything's funny. live like you always will".-Jess

Carly Munro

Ten years is a pretty long time to stay in one place. I'd like to be able to say that I remember every minute of it, because I've had a great time and a great education, but the days are blurred and the lessons are long forgotten, replaced by something harder. Unlike every single minute, I do remember all the details of you guys, my classmates, my girls. Every tear, every smile, every voice, every laugh, every joke and everything that I pretended not to know, are pretty much engraved in my memory. Here's to never forgetting the way we were, the way we are and keeping in touch, to know the way we will be.

It was the best of times, it was the worst of times, but hey! It was our times!
Love you all
We push through!
Thank you for the memories
Carly

Kieve Pauzé-Huang

Fourth time rewriting this. 150 words don't do the trick. I love you is all I need to say to the Class of 07, but it's not enough. To Mom, Dad, Rod, Lucas, Robbie, Malko, Taz, Edouard, Bee, James, Steven, the Millers: I'd never make it without you. To all the Study staff thank you. VS: J'ai une Violaine Portable dans mon coeur. Te quiero. AG, finally, I'm asking you, will you marry me? I love you. FK: 4 summers, 8 schoolyears. Need I say more? I love you. Thank you. Karoline, Mia: My girls. Strawberries, Vanilla, and Chocolate I LOVE YOU. I'd die an infinite amount of times for you. I can't express my love for you. Time to leave these walls that hold so much. Class of '08: attachez vos tuques, le temps passe trop vite. This is not my last goodbye.

Samantha Rudolph

To the girls I am so proud to know, the Graduating Class of '07: I hope each and every one of you become exactly what you desire, you girls deserve nothing less. Lifers, the kids who have been there since the beginning, you have made these 12 years sooooo worth it. To my irreplaceable family- thank you for making me so proud to be who I have become. Lauren: you're the best sister I could ask for, thanks for your guidance and support. Love you always and forever. The Study: I will truly be honoured to use everything you have taught me in the years to come. Jay: CNW would be nothing without you. Vfax: You've changed me so much this year, I love you. Court: I've never had so much fun with someone. Kaitlyn and Fafa: we have the rest of our lives to have fafa nights!!! A.F- I'll love you always, mwaaaaa. To my sisters: K.G-F.K-C.S-OBTLD-O.C-A.K-R.B We won't be together next year, but that won't change a thing.
One thing I'm certain of, I have no doubt. People need each other, that's what life's about.

Stephanie Régimbal

These past years have had so many ups and downs. Let me start by saying that I have grown so much in the past five years and I thank everyone here who has been there for me throughout those years. Before anything, I would like to thank all my teachers who have supported me and looked out for me. I'd like to thank all my friends who have been my rocks through the tough times and laughed with me during the good times: R.B., A.S., S.L, J.M.,N.A.H, S.B., A.J., A.G. Thanks to my family: My parents, my little brother Charles and to my little sister Olivia. I love you child, and make the best out of the rest of your time here.

Violaine Saint-Cyr

High School has been one huge whirlwind for me. My years at The Study were full of hard work, stress, learning, personal growth, great memories and experiences, and lots of laughter. As cliché as it may sound, I honestly don't think I would have been able to graduate with a smile on my face if it hadn't been for my amazing friends and classmates. I have to thank my high school survival kit: Kieve, Fafa "Fuski", Noor, Sam, Patty Svetlanas, and Kate. You all helped and encouraged me through the years; without you, I don't know if I would've made it through to the end. Mme. Beaudoin: vous êtes incroyable. Starting in grade 5 I thought graduation would never come, but now that it's finally here, it feels surreal. I'm now ready to move on and face new challenges. Milles mercis, je vous adore.
À la prochaine
-Violaine

Amanda Santache

It's impossible to describe my experience at The Study in one paragraph. A lot can happen in five years, and I am graduating as a changed person. Countless things have marked me throughout my high school career, but this last year has been exceptionally memorable for me. Above all, I've made friendships here that I only hope will last a lifetime. To Jess and Al: you are my sisters. To Alicia: We've been through it all. I know you'll always be there for me and I love you for it. To Tiffany: I've never laughed so hard - you are truly amazing. To Brownie, Regimbal and Rowan: it hasn't been that long, but I know it's not over. I love you all. To my family: your support means the world. Finally, to the Class of '07: I can't believe it's over. It's been quite a ride and I couldn't have chosen better people to take it with.

Courtney Schlemm

These past 9 years have passed by quickly, but the memories will stay with me forever. Mom, Dad, Tyler, Ali & Leonard, thank you for always being there for me and for being so understanding. Mark, you mean the world to me and I will always love you (and Bobby). Rowan you've been my best friend since I can remember and I can always count on you to be there for me. Liv, you're so crazy and fun to be around, I love you tons you hippie! Olivia and Anna, I'm going to miss you guys like crazy next year! Kaitlyn, Sam and Fafa, I love you guys so much, you always know how to have a good time!!! To all my other friends that I didn't name, I love you all! I've had so many good times at The Study, but I'm excited to move on.

Caroline Smisek

Time is flying fast. Too fast, it's scary but there are 6 people that will stick with me through time no matter what. Kieve, we've been through so much together and there is so much more to come, get ready 'cause it's only the beginning. Mia, my love, my tooshie, my wife, my swing person, my dog-walking partner, my make-up girl. My everything. Thanks for being there every time. Fafa.. taakkkk... Pit pivo? We have so many memories that no one will ever be able to experience. I can't see myself traveling the world with anyone else but you. Miluju te tak moc. Lucas, I probably wouldn't have made it out of high school without you. Best Friends Forever. I love you. Mom & Dad: Thank you for everything. You both are my heros, my inspirations, my idols.

It's time; now send me on my way.
Kaja

Ashley Stanford-Toonen

Four years are almost up: The Study chapter of my life is almost over, and what an experience it was - endless hours spent learning and studying are finally going to pay off! CEGEP, here I come! I'd like to thank my mom and dad for supporting me through thick and thin, I love you both. Thank you, Alexa, for always being there and putting up with me (haha) I <3 YOU HIFE! - And of course, a big thanks to all my classmates and teachers who made it all worthwhile.

"Twenty years from now, you will be more disappointed by the things that you didn't do than by the ones you did do. So throw off the bowlines. Sail away from the safe harbor. Catch the trade winds in your sails. Explore. Dream. Discover". Mark Twain

A Message From the Chairs

MUN was an anticipated event that involved much time to organize, but this time was well dedicated. This year approximately eighty people participated, making this conference a great success. Mr. Greenhill, the president of CIDA, opened the MUN with a very inspiring and captivating speech. Once again The Study performed very well and gained much debating experience and knowledge of issues in our world. We are proud to announce that the Best Speaker title was awarded to The Study's, Fanny Dvorkin! This conference would not have been possible without the help of our volunteers, our teachers, Ms. Zannis, Ms. Falco, and Mr. Leoncavallo. We hope that next year this event will be as exciting as it was this year!

Sincerely,
Co-chairs: Stephanie Brownstein and Patricia Bright

Ms. Traylen

The success of this year's athletic program can be measured in many ways. Winning seven banners, three silver medals and numerous games, races and matches is very impressive and has made me very proud. More importantly, I know that the girls who participated on the 32 school teams developed their personal skills, displayed sportsmanship and made friendships that will last a lifetime. They have supported each other on and off the field.

Everyone knows my motto: "It's not all about winning." It's about learning, developing, having fun and doing all of this using sportsmanship and fair play.

It is important to note that programs like ours can only run well when we have the support of a staff who gives of their class time and personal time to encourage involvement on school teams.

It is my hope that as this wonderful Class of 2007 moves on to other fields of dreams that they take with them the sense of responsibility and commitment that is needed to be a member of a Study Team.

Ms. Crutchfield

Every year I am asked to hand in a write up about my year as a coach. This year has been quite different compared to my previous years. Unfortunately, I was unable to coach my soccer and swimming teams because of my personal situation. Thankfully, I was able to coach the Track & Field Team and I can honestly say it was our BEST YEAR EVER!

Once again, I cannot express enough how impressed and proud I am when I work with the girls here at the school. Not only when I am coaching but also when I am teaching.

Girls, you are all beautiful, strong, dedicated and fun. You have made my stay here one that I will never forget. Please do not forget me because I will never forget you. I will hold many fond memories close to my heart forever.

Livianne Smukalla

A student from Freiburg, Germany joins The Study grade 11 class for 8 months

Livianne's story:

"I want to tell you a story. In August 2006 a 16 year-old girl from Germany left her continent for the first time and flew to Canada, more precisely, to Montreal. She was going to live with a family for more than half a year. At the end of the same month she started her first day of school. She had known that it was a small girls' school with a uniform and strict rules but when she actually got there she wanted to have a ticket right away back into her public, co-ed school. Although three times as big, it seemed a lot safer to her. But since this was impossible she tried to fit in the new environment and find friends.

Now it's March and my time here is over. I thank the grade 11 girls for taking me into your class. It gave me the chance to learn a lot, about you as Canadian girls, you as individuals and about me myself. I would also like to thank my teachers for taking care of the intellectual education and for their support whenever I had problems following. Another special thank-you goes to Ms. Walsh, to Ms. Falco and to Ms. Zannis for giving me the chance to come here in the first place.

I wish you all a great spring break and a wonderful graduation to my grade!

Thank you."

-Livianne

Australian Exchange

Grade 11 students, Carly Munro and Sarah Lazure take part in a student exchange experience

This year the grade 11 class welcomed Emily Wilde and Eliza Meallin, two students from Ruyton Girls' School in Melbourne, Australia. Carly Munro and Sarah Lazure, their hosts, spent a month in Melborne in exchange. In Sarah's words, the decision to participate in a student exchange was "without a doubt, the best one I have ever made".

" I met some of the most incredible people in the entire world, visited a beautiful country and made some friendships that will last a lifetime."
- Sarah

Carly (right) and Emily (left)

"An exchagne is just one of those amazing life experiences that will never leave you. I'll always have Melbourne, Montreal and the people I met along the way in the back of my mind"
-Carly

Literary Magazine

The 2006-2007 edition of the Literary Magazine is a collection of the finest pieces of English and French literature, featured Art work and ITM pieces. The magazine encompasses enchanting essays, philosophical poetry, alluring art paintings, and sharp photography, submitted by students in the Senior School. The theme chosen for this year's edition is the four seasons. It adds an interesting touch to our magazine, as we organized many of the written work, accompanied by the art and photography, according to the season that they best fit into.

We have had a remarkable year putting together this year's edition, and enjoyed reviewing all the submissions. However, completing this project would not have been possible without the help of numerous people. We would like to thank Ms. Swiderski and Mme Beaudoin for their guidance, Ms. Liogas for her technological aid, Mme Anderson for her help with editing the French pieces and Ms. Campbell for her support. We would also like to recognize the Literary Magazine team for their input and their help in editing the work. Finally, it is thanks to all the students that this magazine is published, and we show great appreciation to all those who submitted their pieces. We hope you enjoy the 2006-2007 edition of The Road Taken!

Summer Liberation

Steadily, she lifts a ball
With the curve of her foot.
Tranquil, balance found on her ankles,
Discovering something innovative, she is intrigued.
This isolated art seems to transform her; she is limitless.

She penetrates a gleaming surface,
Diving into the unknown.
Whirling waves carry her ashore.
Water infiltrates her
And all she can recall
Is that time is still.
In the moment, she feels like it's this moment forever.

Day after day, night till dawn
Excitement is all around her.
Sunny days and charming nights
Winter, autumn, spring are gone.
These are the seasons of her life,
But summer is the season of her liberation.

She has soaked up sunlight,
A day spent with adventure.
Now she gleams into a dazing fire,
While her heart interprets the freedom of the night.
She is free, because summer has brought her liberty.

In the magic of the fire, only then does it occur;
The myth that was her life is soon over.
She travels home with a heavy heart.
Summer has gone so swiftly.
Time kept going,
But she was immobilized.

La Musique

La musique
Qu'on entend voler par-dessus des villes enchantées
Sur des ailes d'or
La musique
Des ailes multicolores
Dans le vent

La musique
Aux brises d'été confond
Ses belles chansons
Au-delà des plus hauts toits
La musique maîtresse de la joie
Absolue

Écouter
Près des vergers
Ces grands airs doux
Écouter
Cette symphonie d'été
Et ces éclats fous

La musique
Les a caressés
Par-dessus des villes enchantées
Et d'un sourire mélodique
La musique
A caressé mon cur dépourvu

Banc de parc

Le banc de parc,
Là où est né l'amour,
Ce banc est le sujet de ton histoire.
Un endroit tranquille sous l'arbre majestueux.
C'est là où commence ton voyage.

Au moment de ton premier chant d'amour tu étais assise sur ce banc.
Et le premier baiser que tu lui as donné,
Était déclenché par les belles feuilles d'automne
Et suivi de joie et d'émotions fortes.
Et tu as communiqué tes sentiments d'amour.

Ensuite, tu étais prisonnière d'une peur,
Mais il est venu à ton secours et t'a libérée.
Tu as vécu un frisson.
Et puis, tu as su qu'il serait toujours là pour toi.
Quand tu as vécu tes sentiments de joie,
C'est lui qui les partageait avec toi.

Des heures, des jours, des mois, des années,
Tu étais avec lui toujours.
Un jour, ton coeur s'est brisé
Et voilà la fin de l'histoire d'amour.

Ce banc de parc a tout déclenché
Alors, un jour tu y retournes,
Tu t'assois, et retournes revivre ton passé,
Tes moments de joie et de tristesse à coté de lui,
En faisant sortir tes émotions en cette belle journée d'automne.

Time Stands Still

Footprints in the sand
Lead up to the rising tide.
Smores and laughs and singalongs
Around the fireside.
Coconut skin and cinnamon tans,
The sun kisses your cheeks,
All too soon the nights grow cool,
The willows start to weep.

The seasons change
And I stay the same.
Everything is changing
And time stands still.

The sun fades slowly
But the air stays warm.
The leaves shake in the breeze
Before an autumn storm.
Trees are aflame with color;
Dry leaves crunch underfoot,
A pathway without constraint.

The seasons change
And I stay the same.
Everything is changing
And time stands still.

Twinkle lights, silent nights,
A jolly man in red,
Kids lie in bed at night
Dancing sugarplums in their heads.
Perfect crystal flakes
Fall gently to the ground.
Cold air nips at rosy cheeks
Footprints fall without a sound.

The seasons change
And I stay the same.
Everything is changing
And time stands still.

The smell of wildflowers
Baby's breath, fluid melodies.
Liquid notes that flood your soul
With love and memories.
The skies open up, the dark clouds rumble
Lightning tears up the sky,
But April showers bring May flowers
And jars of fireflies.

The days turn into years
Eyes drown in tears,
And you might lose your will.
The world may turn
The seasons may change
But for us, time stands still.
